

John Taylor, President & CEO
Ontario Mutual Insurance Association

John began his career in insurance after graduating with a business degree from Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo Ontario. Since 2009, he has been the President of the Ontario Mutual Insurance Association (OMIA). OMIA, located in Cambridge, was established in 1882 and represents 36 farm mutual insurers from across the province writing collective premium of about $1.1B. OMIA provides training and education, forms and insurance services, branding, benefits and pension, data collection, and regulatory and legislative affairs support for its member companies.

John is a Fellow of the Insurance Institute of Canada, and holds the Canadian Risk Management designation, and Chartered Loss Adjuster designation. He also serves as Secretary of the Fire Mutuals Guarantee Fund.

John is currently a board member and Treasurer of Farm and Food Care Ontario, a non-profit association that promotes public trust in food and farming in Ontario. He is a board member of the Institute for Catastrophic Loss Reduction, and was awarded the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies Service Award in 2022.

John resides in Rockwood with his wife Linda.
